NY DANCESPORT STANDS UP TO CANCER

WEST NYACK, N.Y.: On Sunday, May 20th, NY DanceSport will host a surprise dance performance within Palisades Center's East Court as they "Stand Up to Cancer" for their fifth year running.

NY DanceSport is a local dance class studio in New City, New York, who has received over 1.28 million views on their YouTube videos showcasing previous routines presented at Palisades Center. All proceeds and donations will benefit Stand Up to Cancer, a non-profit organization that uses 100% of donations to fund and develop cutting edge cancer research and treatments for patients.

"We're very excited to have NY DanceSport and Stand Up to Cancer join us for the fifth-year annual flash mob performance," says Rachel Chester, Marketing Director at Palisades Center. "We are always in support of our community members and how we can better each other, especially with a surprise flash mob performance!"
