HOLIDAY HAPPENINGS THIS WEEKEND AT PALISADES CENTER

WEST NYACK, N.Y.: All weekend long, Palisades Center will host a variety of holiday-themed events for the whole family! Guests are encouraged to visit The Rockland County Music Teacher’s Guild, Rockland County Marine Corps, Department of Social Services, and United Hospice of Rockland as they start (or finish) their holiday shopping.

The Rockland County Music Teacher’s Guild will host their annual music marathon in the Lord & Taylor Court on Level One on Saturday and Sunday. Accompanied by a grand piano, students will perform in order to raise money for local charities. The Guild will be onsite 10:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m.

During this Season of Giving, Palisades Center is honored to host local non-profit organizations this holiday season, including Rockland County Marine Corps. on behalf of “Toys for Tots,” Department of Social Services on behalf of Rockland Parent Aid Fund, United Hospice of Rockland, and many more. Please visit www.palisadescenter.com for a full list of organizations the center is supporting this season. For more information on campaign dates, please visit our events page.

Sponsored by Autism Speaks, Palisades Center is proud to host “Santa Cares,” a nationally-recognized event that allow families an opportunity to meet with Santa for small group interaction for an allotted timeframe in an environment that supports their sensory, physical, and developmental needs. Families may register for a fifteen minute time-slot with Santa for special and interactive meet and greets. To register for this program, please visit <https://www.eventbrite.com/e/palisades-center-santa-cares-tickets-51307559291>. Visits with Santa are free. Photo packages that capture holiday memories will be available for purchase during the event.
