WHITE BARN COLLECTION NOW AVAILABLE AT BATH & BODY WORKS

-- Bath & Body Works Renovations Now Completed at Palisades Center --

WEST NYACK, N.Y.: Bath & Body Works welcomed guests at Palisades Center followed by their ribbon cutting ceremony on Friday, May 24th. Located on Level Three, the beauty store relocated to a temporary location while remodel of the current space expanded the “White Barn” collection. The store has moved back into their original location near Crocs with the store tripled in size.

The White Barn Candle Company is a popular home fragrance designer with a range of signature scents and products to choose from, including wallflowers, candle, hand soap, and more. Representatives from Bath & Body Works, the Rockland Business Association, and Palisades Center Management joined the team in celebrating during their ribbon cutting ceremony.

WHAT: Bath & Body Works – Now Open!

WHERE: Level Three, near Crocs

“We are thrilled to have Bath & Body Works expand their new concept to include the White Barn collection,” said General Manager, Darrin Houseman. “At Palisades Center, we’re always looking to expand diversity in products and helping our merchants expand their market.”
