PALISADES CENTER HOSTING A VIRTUAL JOB FAIR

West Nyack, NY (August 2020): Palisades Center is holding a VIRTUAL JOB FAIR featuring employment opportunities with Palisades Center businesses. Over 40 of Palisades Center's tenants are now looking to expand their teams and hire, with jobs being added daily. Palisades Center employs 5,000 people with 75% of employees living in Rockland County.

"As one of the largest employers in Rockland County, it is important that we do our part to help people get back to work," said Darrin Houseman, General Manager of Palisades Center. "We look forward to connecting job seekers with immediate opportunities as businesses within the Center continue to ramp up."

"The Palisades Center is a key part of our local economy and it is heartening to see businesses once again open and hiring," said County Executive Ed Day. "I encourage Rockland residents to check out the list of openings and apply for those that are of interest."

Clarkstown Supervisor George Hoehmann said, "I am delighted the Palisades Mall has coordinated the virtual job fair designed to assist our community in their efforts at returning to the workforce. With positions available for all types of experience, this is a great opportunity for residents seeking employment."

The Virtual Job Fair will run through September 30. There are positions for people with all types of experience, education, and skill levels – from entry-level roles to management positions. Full and part-time available jobs include Managers, Sales Associates, Servers and more. For a full list of openings, visit www.PalisadesCenter.com/employment.
