West Nyack, NY (October 2020): Lollipop Toys, an independent toy store specializing in toys for children from newborn to 10, opened its newest location at Palisades Center. Lollipop Toys is located on Level One next to 7-Eleven.

Lollipop Toys was founded by entrepreneur Ramesh Shrestha. Palisades Center is the brand's third location. Customers can expect the latest toys and accessories, including a great selection of ride-on toys and a wide variety of L.O.L. Surprise! branded merchandise.

"I am excited to bring Lollipop Toys to Palisades Center, the people of Clarkstown and Rockland County, and taking our business to the next level," said owner Ramesh Shrestha. "The best part of my job is to see the joy that our products bring to children and their families."

"We welcome Lollipop Toys to Palisades Center," said Darrin Houseman, General Manager of Palisades Center. "It's a great place for kids just to be kids, especially during this difficult time. We wish Mr. Shrestha the best with this new endeavor."

"It is exciting to welcome a new store like Lollipop Toys to Clarkstown," said Clarkstown Councilman Patrick Carroll. "We all have to root for small businesses during this challenging time, particularly businesses that bring joy and happiness to children."

"Lollipop Toys will be a great addition to the Palisades Center," said Clarkstown Councilman Michael Graziano. "Kids, more than ever, need opportunities to exercise their creativity and imagination. Now there is another local toy store where kids can do that in-person."
