CLIMBZONE ANNOUNCES NEWEST LOCATION AT PALISADES CENTER

WEST NYACK, N.Y. (October 2021): ClimbZone, a unique family-focused climbing entertainment center, will open its newest location at Palisades Center this fall. ClimbZone will be located on Level Three in the Food Court where the former carousel resided.

What sets ClimbZone apart from other family venues is the artistic climbing walls. Palisades Center climbers will scale 34 walls, including a 40' Mount Rushmore, a tall Suit of Armor, the Statue of Liberty, and a map of the USA. Another special feature of ClimbZone is the auto-belay system. The hydraulic system allows climbers to take control of the ascent, as well as returning to the ground without relying on another person.

"We are very excited to join Palisades Center," said Ovadia S. Manies, Operating Partner of ClimbZone. "Palisades Center was one of the first malls in the country to incorporate experiential entertainment for visitors. We are looking forward to taking it to the next level with our 'climbable art'. Children as well as adults will find the experience thrilling as they push themselves to their limits trying to climb and conquer the walls."

"Palisades Center is known for its wide-variety of entertainment attractions and now ClimbZone is adding fun and colorful climbing walls to the line-up," said Darrin Houseman, General Manager of Palisades Center. "We can't wait to see families enjoying this climbing experience together."

"It's uplifting to see new attractions, restaurants and retail stores establishing their businesses at Palisades Center," said Clarkstown Councilman Donald Franchino. "We wish ClimbZone much success and look forward to watching Clarkstown residents and Rockland County visitors enjoying this new entertainment option."

This unique family-focused climbing entertainment center concept originated in New Zealand. The first United States climbing center opened in Laurel, Maryland in November 2014. There is another ClimbZone location open in Howell, New Jersey and ClimbZone in Chicago, Illinois will be opening soon.
