SLIME WORLD IS NOW OPEN AT PALISADES CENTER

WEST NYACK, N.Y. (December 2021): Slime World, the premier craft studio where kids can make their own slime, is now open at Palisades Center. The Slime World studio is located on Level Three next to the Build-A-Bear Workshop.

Slime World takes the messy out of slime making. The studio space is designed for sticky fingers and messy projects where children can unleash their creativity, play, and express themselves in a stimulating environment.

"At Slime World, we know there is nothing that children love more than some messy fun, and we happen to be the pros," said Sandeep Shah, Owner of Slime World. "Our mission is to bring smiles to kids while engaging their creative minds! We invite our little guests to come for a one-on-one experience and parents to host the next party with us to create unforgettable memories for their children and all their friends!"

"The Slime World studio is a perfect destination for Palisades Center's youngest guests," said Darrin Houseman, General Manager of Palisades Center. "We can't wait to see them having a blast while they customize their own slime creations."

"Congratulations to Mr. Shah and the Palisades Center on the opening of Slime World," said Clarkstown Supervisor George Hoehmann. "Slime World is another interactive kid-friendly experience families can enjoy at Palisades Center. We encourage the community to check it out."

The only other Slime World studio is in Freehold, New Jersey.

Join us for a Grand Opening and Ribbon Cutting Ceremony on Tuesday, December 21st at 4:00pm. Approved media photos can be found here.
