CLIMBZONE IS NOW OPEN AT PALISADES CENTER

WEST NYACK, N.Y. (May 2022): ClimbZone, a unique family-focused climbing entertainment center, is now open on Level Three in the Food Court at Palisades Center.

What sets ClimbZone apart from other family venues is the artistic climbing walls. Palisades Center climbers will scale 34 walls, including a 40' Mount Rushmore, a tall Suit of Armor, the Statue of Liberty, and a map of the USA. Another notable feature of ClimbZone is the auto-belay system. The hydraulic system allows climbers to take control of the ascent and return to the ground without relying on another person

"We are very excited to join Palisades Center," said Ovadia S. Manies, Operating Partner of ClimbZone. "Palisades Center was one of the first malls in the country to incorporate experiential entertainment for visitors. Now we take it to the next level with our 'climbable art'. Children and adults will find the experience thrilling as they push themselves to their limits trying to climb and conquer the walls."

"Palisades Center is known for its wide variety of entertainment attractions. Now ClimbZone added fun and colorful climbing walls to the line-up," said Darrin Houseman, General Manager of Palisades Center. "We can't wait to see families enjoying this climbing experience together."

This unique family-focused climbing entertainment center concept originated in New Zealand. Palisades Center is one of four ClimbZone locations throughout the United States.
